Par. 16. New § 19.781 is added immediately following § 19.780, to read as follows:

§ 19.781 Record of alternating premises.

When distilled spirits plant bonded premises are alternated to or from bonded wine cellar, taxpaid wine bottling house, brewery, manufacturer of nonbeverage products, or general premises, under an approved plan of alternation described in the plant registration, the proprietor shall record the following information:

- (a) The date and hour of the alternation;
- (b) The kind of premises being curtailed, including plant identification number, if applicable;
- (c) The kind of premises being extended, including plant identification number, if applicable;
- (d) Identification of the special diagrams in the registration documents depicting the premises as they exist before and after the alternation; and
- (e) The purpose of the alternation.

Par. 17. In § 19.1001, the first sentence of paragraph (a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 19.1001 Consignee premises.

(a) General. When spirits are received by transfer in bond or from customs custody, the proprietor shall examine each conveyance to determine whether the locks, seals, or other devices are intact upon arrival at the premises.

Par. 18. New § 19.1003 is added immediately following § 19.1002, to read as follows:

§ 19.1003 Transfer from customs custody.

(a) General. Spirits imported or brought into the United States in bulk containers may be withdrawn from customs custody and transferred in such bulk containers or by pipeline, without payment of tax, to the bonded premises of a large or medium alcohol fuel plant, but only if the spirits were not produced from petroleum, natural gas, or coal. Spirits received on alcohol fuel plant premises as provided in this section shall be subjected to further manufacturing or processing after receipt. Such spirits may be redistilled or denatured only if imported at 185 degrees or more of proof, and withdrawn for fuel use only, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as domestically produced alcohol fuel.

(b) Transfer procedures. The procedures in § 19.1001 and in subpart L of part 251 of this chapter pertain to the transfer of spirits from customs custody to an alcohol fuel plant.

(c) Restriction. A proprietor who intends not to produce spirits, but to engage solely in the business of receiving spirits from customs custody as authorized in this section, must qualify as a regular distilled spirits plant under 26 U.S.C. 5171 and subpart G of this part.

§ 19.1010(b) [Amended]
